STRATEGIC HIGHLIGHTS

Fiscal Year 2022 brought with it continued challenges for the residents of Clinton County, as the COVID-19 pandemic continued, affecting the mental health of many. The 708 Mental Health Board responded with its focus on maximizing the quality and effectiveness of mental health service delivery. The board also seated new members during the year, who will help to expand the knowledge base of the entire board well into the future.

OPERATIONAL STRUCTURE

The Clinton County 708 Mental Health Board meets quarterly to ensure that funds are being spent in a manner that is consistent with state statute and board policies, review pertinent topics, review and approve grant applications and monitor grantees.

LOOKING AHEAD

Additional dollars have been allocated for the coming fiscal year, in response to the increased demand for mental health services. A full board, with members from the mental health, healthcare, law enforcement, education, local government, and other service communities stands ready to tackle the tough issues along with our funded providers.
